Hotel Empire

BOULEVARD and 63d STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

- A strictly first-class modern hotel at moderate rates has been a longfelt want in New York. The Hotel Empire fills it. It is equal in equipment, accessibility, cuisine and service to the most expensive hotels of the world, and its rates are less than those charged by the ordinary hotel.
- It is delightfully situated at the intersection of the Grand Boulevard, Columbus avenue and 63d street, and fronts on Empire Park.
- It is noted for the excellence of its cuisine and service, its homelike and beautiful appointments, its delightful music, and its moderate rates.
- It is the winter home of many of the best families of the Metropolis, and enjoys the patronage of travelers and tourists of the best class from all parts of the world.
- All points in the city can be reached more easily and in less time from the Hotel Empire than from any of the down town hotels.
- The Broadway cable, the Sixth, Seventh and Ninth Avenue, the Amsterdam Avenue and the Boulevard and Forty-second surface cars pass its entrance.
- The stations of the Sixth and Ninth Avenue "L" Roads are only one minute's walk from its doors. The Belt Line cars only one block

DREYFUS' PRISON LIFE.

He Tries to Amuse Himself With Gardening and Algebra.

London Telegraph's Paris Correspondence. I learn on very good authority that Dreyfus is now practically unrecognizable. His bair has turned quite white, and he is a complete wreck. Even if the inquiry which McMillan James, Mich. 1114 Vermont averaged McMillan James, Mich. 1114 Vermont averaged Millan James, Millan James ery, but has only a dead wall to gaze up-on. The wretched man tried to convert the ground into a little garden, but the soil is so poor and pebbly that he had to give up the idea. When he arrived at the He du Diable he used to beguile the time by working out algebraical problems on a slate, but after a while he abandoned the practice, and he now passes hours togeth the provisions with which he is supplied by the authorities, they are reduced to the simplest expression, fresh meat alter-nating with bacon, while bread, vegetables, salt and pepper, the last even regarded as a favor, complete the miserable list. Owing, however, to the money which he is permitted to receive from France-120 a month, as is believed-Dreyfus is able to supplement this meager diet and to provide himself with good wine, cognac, preserves and also with cigars, which he smokes continuously. Such is the life. serves and also with cigars, which he smokes continuously. Such is the life, or rather existence, led by this unhappy man, and from which his relatives and friends are endeavoring with might and main to free him, while clearing his char-

Comes From Africa to Wed.

From the Chicage Tribune. Giles E. Carveth, who formerly lived in Chicago, but went to South Africa to seek his fortune, returned a few days ago to marry his sweetheart, Miss Nellie Chesney, whom he left when he went to the land of whom he left when he went to the land of the Boers. He gave his residence to Mar-riage License Clerk Salmonson as Cape Town, South Africa, and said he would re-turn there to live with his bride. He gave his age as twenty-eight and said he was prospering finely. He is a Canadian by birth.

From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A sensation has been created in the Straits settlements and the far east by the sudden appearance of a new island off the coast of Borneo, between Nemtakol and Lumbdidan. The island is forty-five feet high, a third of a mile long and a quarter of a mile wide. For the most part, the island is merely an upheaval of the bottom of the sea, but at its highest point there is a distinct mud crater, with the cone-shaped top and sides fallen in. The sides of the cone give evidence of having been forced up through a crevice in solid rock. The British North Borneo Herald says the cone, which is thirty yards in diameter, is surrounded by another and larger cone, which shows that with more pressure from be-neath a much larger crater would have been formed. The rising of the island was ance. The crater is seamed with crevices and cracks, which emit gases. By applying a torch to a small crack in the crater the gas ignites and burns steadily. The Bulldog a Good Dog.

From Outing. No member of the canine family has been more persistently maligned than the bulldog. Writers who have no intimate knowledge of the dog and his attributes have described him as stupidly ferocious, and illus trators have pictured him as a sort of semiwild beast, till the general public has come to look upon him as dangerous.

"Give a dog a bad name," is an old saw and perhaps a true one, but when it is applied to the bulldog, it is manifestly unjust. Writers, too, have fallen into grave error in claiming that the bulldog is deficient not only in affection, but in intelligence.

No greater proof of the falsity of the latter could be given than was witnessed at the late Westminster Kennel Club's dog show, when Col.Shults exhibited his trained dogs, with the buildog Nick performing all sorts of wonderful feats, especially that of walking a tight rope, and, when in the center of it, turning round and retracing his steps, amid the applause of an admiring audience. Stonehenge, who is considered one of the greatest of canine scientists, claims that the bulldog's brain is relatively larger than that of the spaniel, which dog is generally considered to be the most intelligent of the canine race, while the bulldog's affection is never to be doubted.

Importing Wolf Scalps.

From the Chicago Times-Herald.

Another curious circumstance was noticed by the officers of two counties adjoining in central Kansas last winter. The officers of one were paying out money every day for wolf scalps, while the others seldom had any demands for the reward. Each of the hunters was compelled to swear that he had killed the wolf inside the boundaries of the county where the scalp was presented, and there was no reason for doubting the truth of the testi mony. But what could be the reason of the disparity in the claims? One day settler's son was questioned:

Where did you kill this wolf?" "Down near the edge of the county." "Are coyotes very thick there?"

"Well, rather, though not so thick as they are farther south."
"Over in the other county?"
"Yes, there are more there."
"But they do not kill any there. Why

"The other county only pays $1 for scalps and this pays $2. So we drive them over the line before we shoot them." The county officers at once readjusted the scale of rewards.
